If a cat is transferred to a color class that is not noted on the judge's book sheet, you must hand write the color class number and description in the first available space along with the entry number, etc. If the cat is transferred to a Class which already has a header, just insert the cat entry #, DOB, CH/GC/PR/GP/K in class column and include the color description below the entry number.

Marking Absentees & Transfers, Cont.

It is imperative that transfers in the color and pattern of a cat be made 100% across all the judging rings at a CFA show.

- This includes:
 - Breed
 - Gender
 - Color and pattern

- The cat on the judge's page MUST match the cat on the table.
 - If the judge's page is incorrect, it MUST BE CHANGED in ALL of the judging rings.*

*NOTE: Except in the case where an owner refuses a change of color class; then you must mark WC – Wrong Color Class

Each judge should receive a printed version from the catalog which typically lists cats entered by breed/division.

Show Mechanics

There are 3 things to be mindful of regarding show mechanics:

1. Know precisely what the awards are
2. Know precisely what the awards mean
 - The awards in a CFA show mean exactly what they say!
3. Know which cats are eligible for which awards

Awards DO mean exactly what they say:

- Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show
- 2nd Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show except for Best Cat
- Best Solid Color Persian Champion is better than all other solid color Persian champions but not necessarily better than all Persian champions in the show

A cat cannot receive an award if it has been defeated at that show by any other cat competing for the same award

For example: If the Seal Point Siamese number 345 was Best of Breed, the Blue Point Siamese 350 that was Best of Color Blue Point cannot be Best Cat in your ring!

Kitten Class Awards

In Kitten Classes judging starts in the color classes within a breed/division:

ALSO . . .

The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the cat to which you award Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Color Class

Championship / Premiership Class Awards

For Championship/Premiership classes, judging also starts in color classes within a breed/division:

NV Males

3rd 2nd 1st

1st 2nd 3rd

NV Females

CH / PR Males

3rd 2nd 1st

1st 2nd 3rd

CH / PR Females

GC / GP Males

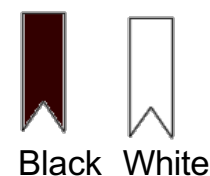

3rd 2nd 1st

1st 2nd 3rd

GC / GP Females

Compete for Best of Color Class and 2nd Best of Color Class

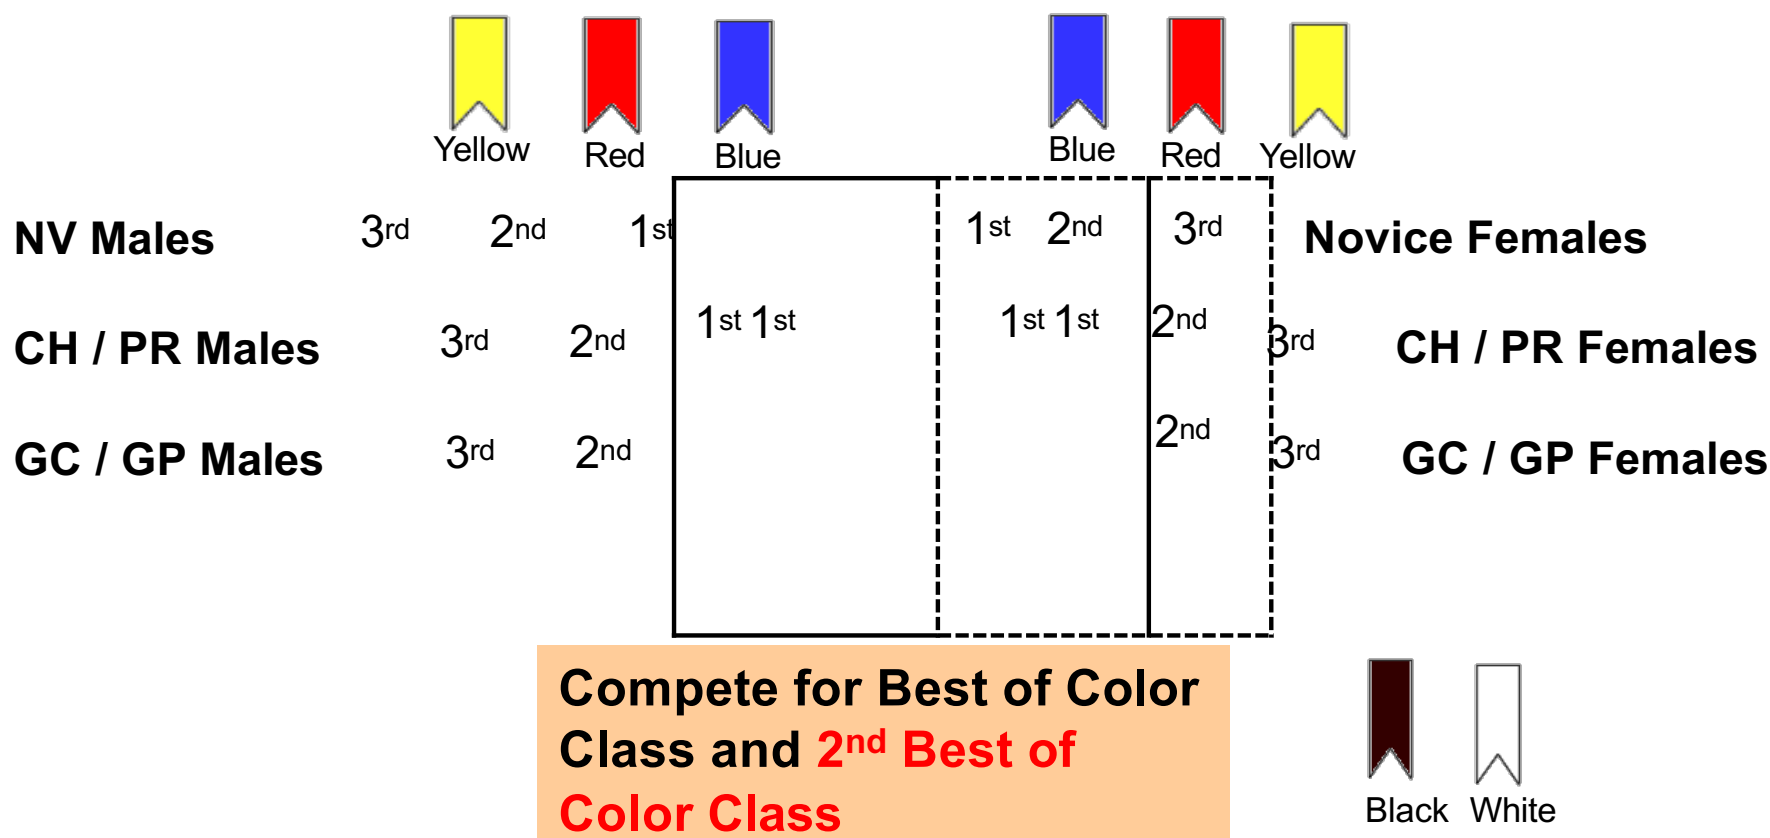

The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the cat to which you award Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Color Class in that ring.

Show Mechanics

Championship / Premiership Class

For Championship/Premiership classes, judging also starts in color classes within a breed/division:

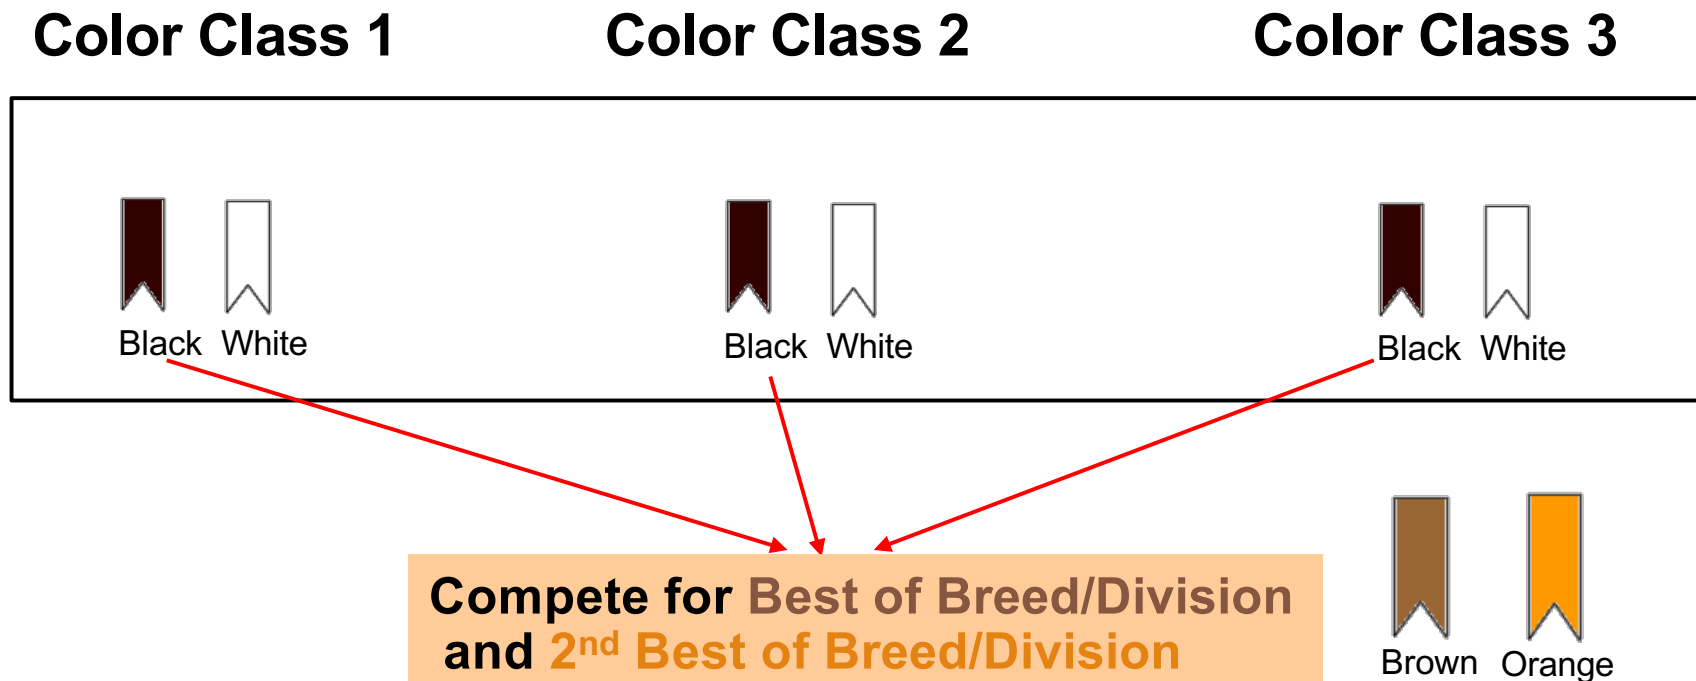

The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the cat to which you award Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Color Class in that ring.

Show Mechanics

Breed / Division Winners

The judge selects Breed/Division winners from Color Class winners (some Breeds/Divisions only have one color class – such as Russian Blues)

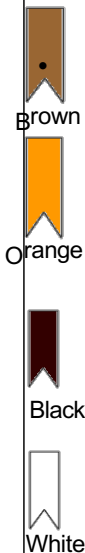

The cat in the class with the white ribbon defeated by the cat to which you award Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Breed / Division

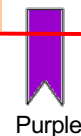

Show Mechanics

Best Champion / Premier

- For Championship and Premiership, you must select the Best Champion/Premier:
- If the Best of Breed/Division is a CH / PR, then also give
- If BOB is not a CH/PR, but the 2nd Best of Breed/Division is a CH/PR, then also give
- If neither the Best or 2nd Best Breed/Division is a CH/PR, then the Best CH/PR of Breed/Division must be:
 1. Best of Color Class which is a CH/PR
 2. 2nd Best of Color Class when Best of Color Class not a CH/PR
 3. A First place winner when
 4. Best of Color Class and 2nd Best of Color Class not CH/PR

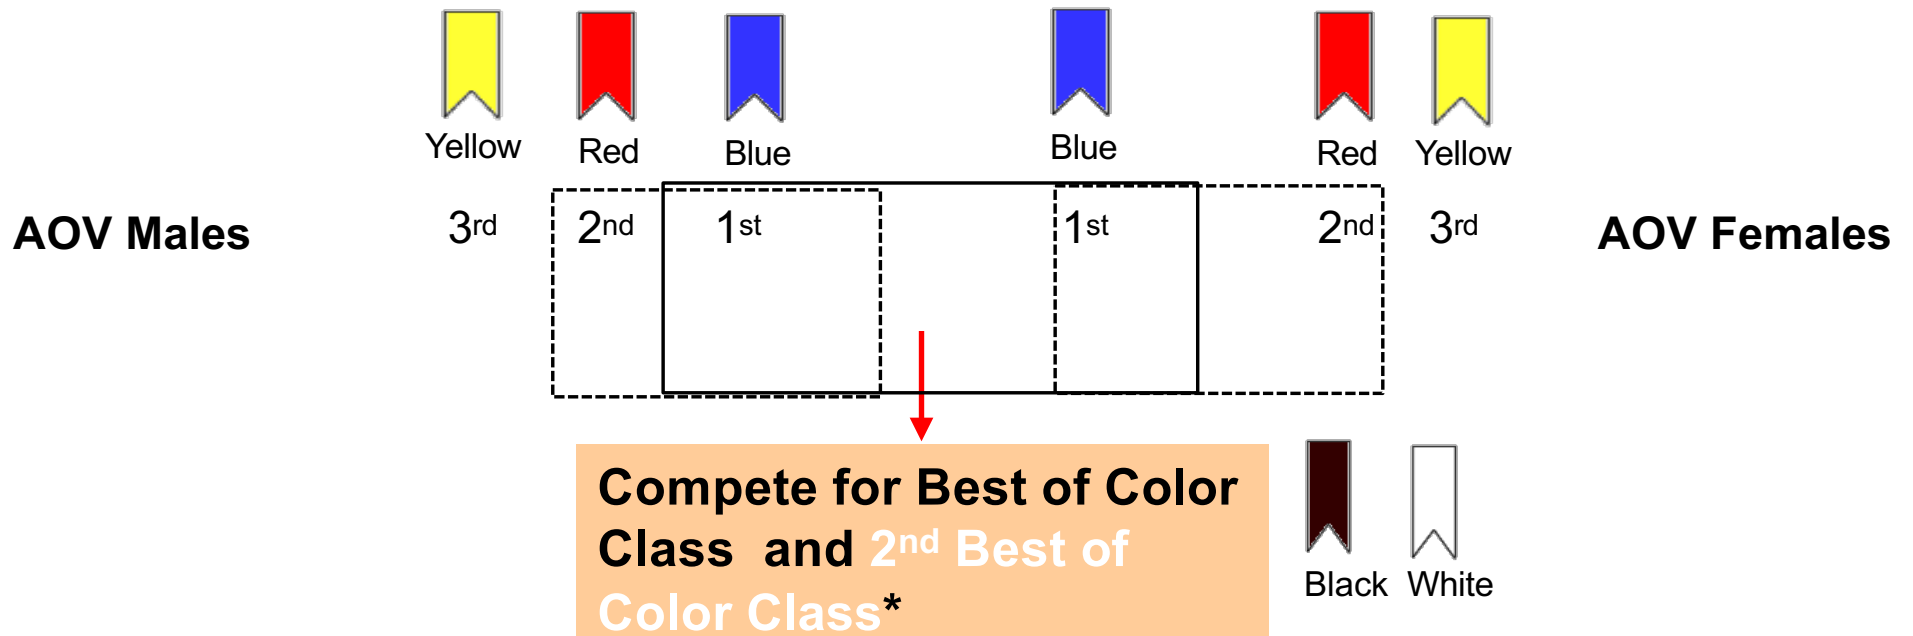

Best Champion/Premier of Breed/Division

AOV Awards

For Kittens, Championship and Premiership, AOV judging within a breed/division is a special case:

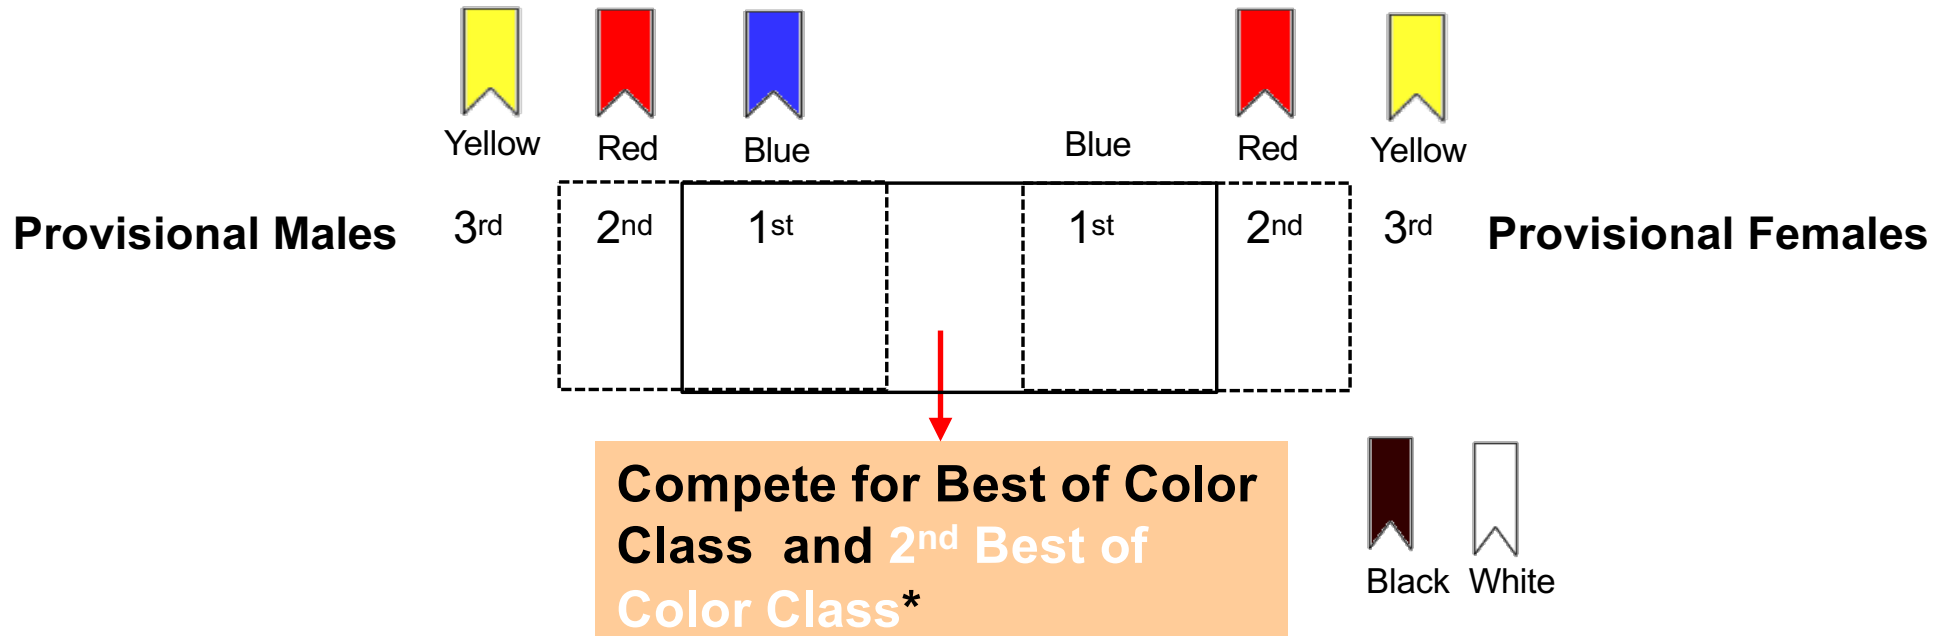

The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the cat to which you award Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Color Class.

* AOV (Any Other Variety) Class is for registered kittens/cats the ancestry of which entitles it for Championship/Premiership competition, but which does not conform to the accepted show standard (Show Rule 2.20c). The AOV class only receives 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Best of Color Class, and 2nd Best of Color Class ribbons.

AOV are not eligible for Best of Breed & 2nd Best of Breed & they are not eligible for finals.

Provisional Awards

Judging a Provisional breed is also a special case:

The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the Best of Color Class may also compete for 2nd Best of Color Class.

* Provisional class only receives 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Best of Color Class, and 2nd Best of Color Class ribbons. There is only one color class. They are not eligible for Best of Breed and 2nd Best of Breed. Kittens, Championship and Premiership are judged separately.

Miscellaneous Awards

Judging a Miscellaneous Breed is also a special case:

- Cats judged in the Miscellaneous class do not receive any awards
 - They are examined by the judge with a dash marked on the judging sheet to indicate that they were handled.
- The exhibitor is responsible for providing the judge with an evaluation form for both the Miscellaneous and Provisional classes.
 - The judge should complete the evaluation form and give it to the Master Clerk along with all other paperwork.

Miscellaneous Awards Optional Ribbons

Best

Second Best

Third Best

At the club's discretion (optional), all officiating judges will award Best , Second Best and Third Best for each breed in both the Miscellaneous Class and the Provisional Class. If applicable, the club will include this information on the show flyer and the officiating judges will be informed prior to the show.

Cats entered in Miscellaneous receive no award except as noted above

- If the cat has been judged, but receives less than third place in a class, mark a dash. Example: —
- If a cat is absent, mark with 'A' in the Tr. To column, and slash through entry number. Example: A
- If the cat is in the Miscellaneous class, cats judged should simply have a dash even if the club provides ribbons. Example:
- If the cat was bred by the judge, it is not eligible to be judged in that ring. In that case the judging sheets should be marked with 'xxx'.
Example: XXX
- If the cat was bred by a trainee working with the judge, it is eligible to be judged in that ring by the officiating judge. The TRAINEE can not handle such an entry and should mark his/her judging sheet with 'xxx'. Example: XXX

- After all the Champions or Premiers are placed in the Champion Premier table, you may have to select additional Champions or Premiers to complete the final.
- Use the breed summary sheets and the judging sheets for the selections.

Within a Breed/Division:

- Best CH/PR is Best of Breed/Division → OK
- If 2nd BOB is also a CH/PR and has been defeated by the Best CH/PR → OK
- If Best of Color class is also a CH/PR and has been defeated by the 2nd BOB and BOB → OK
- If 2nd Best of Color Class is also a CH/PR and been defeated by the Best of Color Class, the 2nd BOB and BOB → OK
- Another CH as long as the CHs who have defeated the CH are also selected → OK

In this example, 2 additional SH CH are required

1. Complete the top information.
2. Put an "X" for Ring type: AB, LH or SH
3. For Championship, put an "X" for class NV, CH, GC
4. For Premiership, put an "X" for class: NV PR GP
5. Remember your Champions and Premiers
6. Remember your Household Pets
7. Special note for voided placements:
 1. If a cat has left the show hall you may then move up all the other cats in placement making sure it is mechanically eligible. Note the number of the voided cat and placement on your final sheet. This is especially important if another cat of the same breed is in your final.
 2. You may also void the win and leave that placement blank.

Here's an example of an Allbreed Championship Final. The breed summary sheets are on the next page.

- Checking the Final from the Best Cat, Cats #90, 30, 37, 78, 53, 63, 34 and 46 are all
 - Best of Breeds for their Breed/Division.
- No other cat has defeated them.
- Cat #48 is 2nd BOB with cat #46, BOB, ahead of it. For Cat #47, we have to examine the judging sheets for Bi-color Persians summarized here.
- We see that cat #47 was only defeated by cat #46 (BOB) and by cat #48 (2nd BOB).
- The final is OK mechanically so far, but we have to get the champions

- Now, we need to determine the Champions.
 - The first CH in the final is #90, so it is Best AB CH. # 90 is a SH and must be Best SH CH.
 - The next CH is #37, 2nd Best AB CH. #37 is LH and is Best LH CH.
 - Next is #53, 3rd Best AB CH and 2nd Best LH CH.
 - Next is #63, 2nd Best SH CH.
 - Next is #47, 3rd Best LH CH.
- We need one more SH CH (3rd Best SH CH). Looking at the SH breed summary sheet, we could use #58, #80, #85 or #88, all BCH in their breed/Division.
- Let's choose the Siamese #80
